

eNews is Heathwood Hall's electronic newsletter for alumni and current families. This issue of eNews is the first produced by Upper School students in the Introduction to Journalism class.

Issue V

January/February 2007

BORDER CROSSING

A national program connects Heathwood's 5th grade students with young people at a school in Mexico on an environmental project with global implications.

ALUMNA CHARMS CALIFORNIA

Carter Seibels '98 moves her successful jewelry company from Charleston to California -- the latest step in a career journey that began, believe it or not, with her Senior Exhibition at Heathwood.

CENTER STAGE

Highlander thespians join students from 12 public and private schools at a state drama festival and walk away with accolades and a half dozen trophies for their outstanding performances.

LIGHTS...CAMERA...FINNEY!

Sophomore Amanda Finney shines on camera as a student reporter for an SCETV documentary and website on the state's civil rights movement.

JINGLE BELLS

Heathwood is the top independent school and a Top 3 school overall in the annual high school Battle of the Bells, and the record-breaking fundraising campaign brings a celebrity visitor to campus.