

eNews is Heathwood Hall Episcopal School's electronic periodical for alumni and current families. It includes student reports, photographs and other elements produced by the school's Introduction to Journalism class.

Issue VI

March 2007

MORRIS NAMED TEACHER OF YEAR FINALIST

Upper School science teacher Jim Morris is Heathwood's latest honoree in the SCISA Teacher of the Year competition, continuing a remarkable run for the school in the state's only recognition program for excellence in independent school teaching.

US STUDENTS WIN TOTAL OF $700 IN ESSAY CONTEST

Three of Heathwood's graduating seniors and AP English students rake in honors and savings bonds for their exemplary work in a national high school essay contest sponsored by the Federal Reserve Bank.

HEATHWOOD SENIORS HONORED BY URBAN LEAGUE

The Columbia Urban League counts three Heathwood seniors among its Midlands' high school honorees for outstanding achievement in leadership, the arts and technology.

A SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE

Members of the Heathwood girls' chorus are music to judges' ears at the March "Festival Disney" choral competition, placing in the Top 10 overall in their first-ever visit to the Orlando event.

BRIGHT IDEA

Fifth grader Tay Davant creates a top award-winning invention, becoming Heathwood's second consecutive national winner in the INVENT AMERICA! Student Invention Competition.

STUDENTS' HIGH TEST SCORES EARN THEM, SCHOOL RECOGNITION

Duke University's Talent Identification Program (TIP) recognizes 35 students for their high ERB scores and lauds Heathwood as one of its top scoring schools in the Southeast.

PRACTICALLY PICASSO

A statewide student art contest honors works by Heathwood students for the second consecutive year.