COLUMBIA — Award-winning illustrator E. B. Lewis visited the Heathwood campus Oct. 16 and 17, sharing his art, talent and story with students, autographing books and prints, and advising art classes.

Lewis's vibrant watercolors have illustrated more than 60 books, including the Caldecott Honor winner, Coming on Home Soon. The Caldecott Award is the highest award given for picture book illustration.

The visit by Lewis was part of Heathwood libraries' annual Visiting Author/Illustrator Series. Funds raised each spring from the libraries' Book Fair help make such visits possible.
