

The South Carolina Thespians and Palmetto Dramatics Association

Congratulations to EG Heard and our thespians! Results of the joint festival with the South Carolina Thespians and the Palmetto Dramatics Associations are in, and we won top awards from both organizations.

Fourteen high schools with over 200 student actors competed this weekend. For the South Carolina Thespians, students compete in 8 categories: Monologue, Duet Acting, Group Acting, Solo Musical Theatre, Group Musical Theatre, Mime, Short Film, and Costume Design.

Harry Katzman won first place (with a "Superior" rating) in both Monologue and Solo Musical Theatre!!

The South Carolina Thespians also extend invitations to represent South Carolina in the International Thespian Society Festival in June in Nebraska and Heathwood received three invitations to compete!

Harry received an invitation to compete in both Monologue and Solo Musical Theatre, and Mamie Adams and Alexandra Cooke received an invitation to compete in Duet Acting!! For Palmetto Dramatics Association, each participating school presents a One Act Play for adjudication. Heathwood's "The Actor's Nightmare" received an "Excellent" rating, and two acting awards (Harry received a "Superior Acting" Award and Colleen received an "Honorable Mention for Acting" Award)!!

South Carolina Thespians Events:

Superior - Harry Katzman, Monologue

Superior - Harry Katzman, Solo Musical Theatre Superior - Mamie Adams/Alexandra Cooke, Duet Acting *All received invitations to Nationals

Palmetto Dramatics Association:

Excellent - Heathwood, "The Actor's Nightmare"

Superior Acting - Harry Katzman, "The Actor's Nightmare"

Honorable Mention - Colleen Francis, "The Actor's Nightmare"

Honorable Mention - Stage Pictures, "The Actor's Nightmare"