

‘Turkey Trot’ Fundraiser

More than $14,000 pledged to benefit Harvest Hope Food Bank

- Who: Intermediate/Middle School students at Heathwood Hall Episcopal School in Columbia.
- What: ‘Turkey Trot’ – an annual fundraiser for Harvest Hope Food Bank. Last year, students collectively walked 2,258 miles around the school’s track and raised more than $8,000 in pledges. This year, more than $14,000 has been pledged! More than 250 students, teachers and parents are scheduled to walk tomorrow. One student will be dressed as a turkey. Cool Canned Sam – Harvest Hope’s mascot – will be walking to the beat of the music around the track, as well.
- When: TOMORROW, Tuesday, November 25, 2008, from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.
- Where: Heathwood Hall Episcopal School, 3000 S. Beltline Blvd., Columbia, SC 29201. The school is located at the intersection of Bluff Road and Beltline Blvd., near I-77.
- Why: Heathwood Hall Episcopal School students are encouraged to give back by participating in community service and service learning activities.

Heathwood Hall Episcopal School is an independent school offering a college preparatory curriculum and individual attention to students from nursery school through grade 12. For more information, visit www.heathwood.org.

###